

The Wave Job Office

Some of the Best Equipped Country Printing Offices in the State. ¶ We are Prepared to do all classes of Commercial Printing and do it right. ¶ We have recently purchased a complete line of new job faces expressly for Fine Commercial Printing. ¶ We had to do it in order to meet the demands and keep in touch with the business men and their needs. ¶ Our Motto is "Good Work, Fair Prices and Prompt Delivery," and we shall try hard to live up to it.

Wm. Buys

Manager

21 Dec 1906

THE WASATCH WAVE

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY WAVE
PUBLISHING COMPANY,
WM. BOYS, Editor and Manager

Subscription - - $1 50 a Year.
ADVERTISING RATES ON APPLICATION
PHONE No. 9.

Entered at the Postoffice, Heber, as a second class mail matter

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1906

ABOUT .OUR CHRISTMAS WAVE.

We promised our readers a month ago, when we first thought of getting out an enlarged edition as a Christmas number, that we would give them a paper that would be a credit to the county and to the Wasatch Wave. We leave it to them to have kept

street and it is bedtime, what wonderful ideas come into the little minds, and what pleasant memories into those of the grown-ups. What mother would like to miss the little exhibition of hope and faith. The child who trusts most ardently in the benevolent Santa Claus will be most likely to put faith in Heaven's mercies in his after life; for Santa Claus always comes when he is expected, and mother and father hang the stockings up he is sure to put something in them.

Our Baby's Stocking.

It almost is Christmas. We hardly can wait to hang up the stockings alongside the grate. A bustle and sparkle pervades all around; the fir trees are cut and there's snow on the ground. The children, excited and thrilled with delight, are dreaming of Santa Clause all through the night. They wake up and listen to sounds on the roof which is to their fancies a reindeer's wee hoof. The old folks, more eager than even the tots, are burning with secrets and brimming with plots. Mince pies in the pantries delicious and sweet of mother's own making are ready to eat. It almost is Christmas: St. Nick in

THE WASATCH WAVE

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY WAVE
PUBLISHING COMPANY,
WM. BOYS, Editor and Manager

Subscription - - $1 50 a Year.
ADVERTISING RATES ON APPLICATION
PHONE NO. 9.

Entered at the Postoffice, Heber, as se cond class mail matter

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1906

ABOUT OUR CHRISTMAS WAVE.

We promised our readers a month ago, when we first thought of getting out an enlarged edition as a Christmas number, that we would give them a paper that would be a credit to the county and to the Wasatch Wave. We leave it to them to say whether or not we have kept our promise. What was expected of us, by our readers and the people of this county, we do not know, but we hope our effort has filled their expectations.

We realize that our historical sketch of this county is incomplete; that there are many important events not mentioned; that the history of the county for the twenty years last past is not given, except in the biographies; but our readers must remember that two or three weeks is a short time to gather the material and write up a history of a county. The fact is, we bit off too large a mouthful to properly masticate in the limited period at our disposal, to say nothing of digesting. At our age we should have known better and taken it in smaller doses, but some people learn only by experience, and we now have it, and consider it a good investment.

With a "Merry Christmas" to you all, we invite each of you to send your friends a Christmas Wave, as a Christmas present. It will cost you but 10 cents each, and it will help us to tell more people about Wasatch County and its residents and resources. We don't like to have our "light hid under a bushel," nor under a ton of paper; we want the paper distributed so that the light may be seen from afar.

street and it is bedtime, what wonderful ideas come into the little minds, and what pleasant memories into those of the grown-ups. What mother would like to miss the little exhibition of hope and faith. The child who trusts most ardently in the benevolent Santa Claus will be most likely to put faith in Heaven's mercies in his after-life; for Santa Claus always comes when he is expected, and mother and father hang the stockings up he is sure to put something in them.

Our Baby's Stocking.

It almost is Christmas. We hardly can wait to hang up the stockings alongside the grate. A bustle and sparkle pervades all around; the fir trees are cut and there's snow on the ground. The children, excited and thrilled with delight, are dreaming of Santa Clause all through the night. They wake up and listen to sounds on the roof which is to their fancies a reindeer's wee hoof. The old folks, more eager than even the tots, are burning with secrets and brimming with plots. Mince pies in the pantres delicious and sweet of mother's own making are ready to eat. It almost is Christmas; St. Nick in his sleigh all loaded with treasures is coming this way. His reindeer are flying; a day or two more and down through the chimney he'll bound to the floor. And then if the stockings are not in their place, in sorrow he'll vanish and leave not a trace. So hang up the stockings by chimneys with care the night before Christmas; St. Nick will be there.

